Reference is made to your letter of November 15, 1954, inquiring as to action on above subject docket. We wish to advise you that we have had no reply to our letter of June 21, 1954, to the applicant in which we requested more data to substantiate his application.

I have known Mr. Bushati for a long time and as he is a "problem child" I would suggest that the case not be reopened unless he gives us the information requested in my letter of June 21, 1954. In my opinion Mr. Bushati is not responsible financially and could not finance his part of any exploration contract. Any substantiating data he would present as to his application would also be questionable as to value.

Dear Mr. Bushati:

We have been advised by the Chairman of the Operating Committee of the Defense Minerals Exploration Administration that unless you can furnish evidence of your ability to supply your share of the cost of your proposed project, the Government cannot give your application further consideration.

It will also be necessary for you to supply data in more detail relative to your property, as requested in the application form. For instance, you should supply maps and assays relative to your statement that you have 50,000,000 tons of ore reserves.

We are enclosing another set of Application for Aid Forms IF-103 in case you require them.

From: O. M. Bishop, USBM

Subject: Elias Bushati application for $75,000 project at Old Glory Mine, Sec. 24, T. 1 N., R. 25 E. Docket No. DMEA-3373

The application fails to give essential information on the amount of proposed work, the estimated breakdown of costs, the objective or the justification for the work. If the applicant has a 50 million ton ore reserve as stated he obviously needs no exploration program. As in previous applications (DMA-295, 296 and 995, DMPA-2312 and 2313, and DMEA-2585 and 3372) the applicant has given no statement whether and by what means he will furnish his share of the estimated cost. Because of the inadequacy of the exploration application I recommend DMEA write or otherwise explain to the applicant the necessity for the information requested before further action can be taken.

Apparently applications DMEA-3372 and DMEA-3373 were submitted at the same time by the applicant. However, we had received only DMEA-3372 at the time of our review and a memorandum was prepared before we received DMEA-3373.

The material presented in our other memorandum is applicable to our consideration of DMEA-3373.

We note in the second application that Mr. Bushati estimates the Old Glory ore reserves to be 50 million tons of unknown grade. This statement, other than a difference in properties, is the only new item not included in the Fern Creek application.

In light of the decisions made on previous applications, it should be determined whether applicant has funds to participate in a Government exploration project. A field referral and examination is not justified at this time.
